Dear Ms. Phillips:

This is in response to your 23 December 2013 letter (enclosed at Tab A) in which you referred one document originated by the National Security Agency for our review and response to you. Specifically, we refer to the 30 October 2013 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of John Greenewald, submitted on behalf of The Black Vault, for the Intellipedia entry for Benghazi.

We determined that there is CIA information in the document that must be withheld. Deletions were made on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and/or (b)(3). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statute is the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, 50 U.S.C. § 403g, as amended, e.g., Section 6, which exempts from the disclosure requirement information pertaining to the organization, functions, including those related to the protection of intelligence sources and methods. A marked copy of the document is enclosed at Tab B.

If you have questions, please call [redacted] (b)(3) (b)(6)

Sincerely,

Michele Meeks
Information and Privacy Coordinator
